LOCATION & LIFESTYLE

THE WIGWAM RESORT

Located less than 1 mile away, The Wigwam Resort is one of Arizona's most renowned destinations and a defining landmark of Litchfield Park.

Spanning more than 440 acres, the historic resort features three championship golf courses, a full-service spa, multiple pools, award-winning restaurants, tennis and pickleball facilities.

Year-round tournaments, conferences, weddings, and festivals bring a steady flow of visitors to the area, increasing exposure for nearby businesses and retailers.

The resort attracts thousands of visitors annually, creating consistent activity and supporting the surrounding restaurants, boutiques, and local businesses.

Its close proximity enhances the neighborhood's appeal by placing residents just minutes from upscale dining, recreation, entertainment, and one of the West Valley's most prestigious destinations.

Its nationally recognized reputation enhances the prestige of the surrounding community and contributes to Litchfield Park's unique small-town charm with luxury amenities.

LUKE AIR FORCE BASE

Luke Air Force Base is located approximately 4 miles (about an 8-10 minute drive) from Old Litchfield Shops making it exceptionally convenient for military personnel and civilian employees.

As the U.S. Air Force's largest fighter pilot training base and home to the F-35 Lightning II and F-16 training programs, Luke AFB supports thousands of active-duty service members, civilian employees, defense contractors, and their families.

The base serves as one of the largest economic engines in the West Valley, generating billions of dollars in regional economic impact and creating strong, consistent demand for nearby housing.

Its proximity benefits residents through shorter commutes while contributing to the area's stable economy, thriving local businesses, and long-term growth, making nearby properties highly desirable for both homeowners and investors.
